Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-001825

Dear Brian O'Neill (Chiesa Shahinian & Giantomasi PC):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on July 26, 2023, in which you seek the signed charge, initial letter to charged party and initial letter to charging party in George Harms Construction Co., Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiary G.R. Robert Construction Co., Inc., Case No. 22-CA-321090. You assumed fees in the amount of $37.00 for the processing of this request.

We acknowledged your request on July 26, 2023.

A search of the Agency's electronic casehandling system, NxGen, has been conducted. This search has located the requested records, totaling 9 pages, which are attached.

After a review, I have determined that certain information in the attached records is exempt from disclosure under Exemptions 6, 7(A), and 7(C) of the FOIA (5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), (b)(7)(A) and (b)(7)(C)). Specifically, redactions have been made to protect the privacy interests of individuals named in the records. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which protects personally identifiable information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which protects records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C). Other redactions were made to protect portions of the record that are part of the investigative file in an open case, and are privileged from disclosure at this time pursuant to FOIA Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold information included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978).

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category A, commercial use requester. This category refers to requests “from or on behalf of a person who seeks information for a use or purpose that furthers the commercial, trade, or profit interests of the requester or the person on whose behalf the request is made, which can include furthering those interests through litigation.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(v). Consistent with this fee category, you “will be assessed charges to recover the full direct costs of searching for, reviewing for release, and duplicating the records sought.” 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(A). Charges are $9.25 per quarter-hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

Thirty minutes of professional time was expended in searching for and reviewing for release the requested material. Accordingly, please remit $18.50.
